

News from Sagamore West Farmers Market
West Lafayette, Indiana

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT

Kathy Cubberley, Market Director: 765/463-4801; 765/418-6035, cell

Sagamore West Farmers Market features 35 vendors, June programs

West Lafayette, Ind. – May 15, 2008 – June programs at the Sagamore West Farmers Market, held from 3 to 6:30 p.m. every Wednesday through October 29, include:

- June 4, Representatives from West Lafayette's International Sports Center will give fitness demonstrations at the market from 4 to 6 p.m.
- June 11, Fire Inspector Brian Lancaster from the West Lafayette Fire Department will have free items for children and be available to answer questions about safety; and Carla Boehm of the Epsilon Chapter of Delta Sigma Kappa Sorority will be selling purses to raise funds for scholarships and fleece baskets for The Villages.
- June 18, Amy French grills from 3 to 5 p.m., with free samples and recipes for grilled asparagus with garlic butter, spring greens with grilled spring onions, and grilled hamburgers with a twist.
- June 25, Officer Janet Shepherd of the West Lafayette Police Department will bring a police car and other equipment to show. She'll also hand out material on bike safety and identity theft. She plans to be there from 3 to 6 p.m.

Some 35 vendors from a seven-county area are bringing their fares and wares to the open-air market this season. It's held in Cumberland Park, off Salisbury Street and north of Cumberland Avenue in West Lafayette. This is the market's fourth season.

The market's Green and Lean activities, supported by a $38,000 grant from the U.S. Department of Agriculture, include free green balloons for youngsters each week and free tote bags for shoppers on their third visit. Health and safety programs will be offered throughout the season.

Sagamore West Farmers Market is sponsored by West Lafayette Parks and Recreation and the Sagamore West Area Business Alliance.

###